

MALTON LIME DAYS – 9th-10th July 2009

9.00 – 9.30 Registration and introductions, tea and coffee

9.30 – 10.30: Illustrated talk: why use lime mortars? And what happens if you don't – Nigel Copsey

10.45 – 11.30 : kinds of lime and how to use them: putty limes, natural hydraulic limes, hot limes – Alan Gardner

Building and firing the kiln – Nigel Copsey, Andy Lawson

12.00–12.30 Lime in use – lime-ash floors – Mark Womersley

12.30– 1.00 Lime in use – hemp and lime for building and insulation – Mark Womersley

1.00– 2.00 Lunch

2.00–2.30 Lime in use – pointing and rendering – Andy Lawson, Alan Gardner

2.30–3.00 Lime in use – limewashes and shelter coats – Nigel Copsey, Alex Holton

3.00–3.30 Lime in use – stone conservation – Lee Godfrey

3.30–5.00 continuing practical sessions and discussion

Day two:

Lime plastering – Fred Thornton, Andy Lawson, Catherine Windross

Opening the kiln; lime slaking Nigel Copsey, Alex Holton

Continuation of practical sessions from day one

Two days of theory and practice in the use of lime mortars. Venue: Talbot Hotel and York House, Malton. Fee: £65 per day; £100 both days

Contact Nigel Copsey, Estate Office Stables, 90 Old Maltongate, Malton, YO17 7EG

nigelcopsey@hotmail.com

07845 739594

a people and places event

